HSA Bank Tops $1 Billion in Health Savings Account Deposits

WATERBURY, Conn., January 6, 2011 – HSA Bank announced today it surpassed $1 billion in Health Savings Account (HSA) deposits.

The announcement further supports the findings of HSA Bank's June 2010 Consumer Benchmark Survey that HSAs are a mainstream healthcare option.

"We have seen the popularity of HSAs skyrocket with employers and consumers in 2010 and entering 2011," said Kirk Hoewisch, president of HSA Bank. "But reaching $1 billion is an important milestone for the HSA industry as well as HSA Bank."

HSA Bank has exclusively focused on the service and administration of health-based savings accounts since 1997 and has been an industry leader. HSA Bank provides dedicated service and support for consumers, employers and agents, which has helped it attract customers ranging from individuals to Fortune 500 companies.

"The fact that we reached this milestone and grew $500 million in the last 3 years alone is validation of our zealous commitment to providing the best possible consumer and employer experience across diverse groups of insurance carriers, brokers and partners," said Dean Mason, CEO of HSA Bank.
